

S Hotel Der Berghof in Lech

The Berghof is a member of the Idyllic Places and has been, since its inception, a treasured destination for discerning guests throughout the world. A place where modern and traditional blend to a stylish ambience. Here alpine lifestyle is cultivated to the highest level.

Guests enjoy the privileged location of our house: in the heart of Lech yet still enjoying quiet surroundings. An exclusive elevator brings you directly from the village into the hotel in complete comfort. Lech is a place which has, despite its international flair, not lost anything of its immense hospitality as it also is with the Berghof where many regular guests find their personal home away from home.

In the stylish and serenely designed rooms, comfort and aesthetic bond in the most wonderful way. The luxury suites surprise with their authentic and fine materials. Here, natural wood and raw stone have been worked out in an exquisite design.

Enjoy specially selected culinary specialities while gazing over the fascinating mountain. Relax in our exquisite garden and inhale the crystal clear, beneficial mountain air! Refresh and revitalise your body and mind in our luxurious SPA & Beauty "der bergquell" designed to stimulate body and soul. Modern fitness equipment ensures your vitality and fresh energy – which is also available with a personal trainer if requested.

The world famous downhill slopes are just in front of the door - and beginners have their own practice ski lift.

A holiday, which will become a source of enduring inspiration, is waiting for you!
