

Der Berghof is a member of “Idyllic Places”

Der Berghof, 4* superior hotel in Lech, has been a member of “Idyllic Places” since 2016 – celebrating exceptional alpine hospitality.

“Idyllic Places” was founded by Sepp Perwanger in 1993. He created this unique platform to acknowledge family run hotels and vineyards which have committed themselves to authenticity and sustainability.

Discover magical places

The “Idyllic Places” locations are rare mountain treasures. We are an elite selection of the finest hotels, restaurants and vineyards in the alps. We are retreats for special moments when you can return to the beauty of nature and experience precious emotions and happiness in the tranquility. Together, we are all united by one idea: uniqueness.

Why it suits us

“Idyllic Places” is the perfect symbol for us to express for what we stand for. We believe that a holiday should be a truly special treat and Der Berghof is a place where our guests can feel at ease in an intimate and charming environment. We value our membership of “Idyllic Places” as it corresponds with our key qualities of relaxation and well-being. Isabelle & Stefan Burger
